Candidate statement	For the past 27 years our insurance agency has been solely dedicated to educating and serving community associations which is consistent with the core mission of the Central Ohio CAI Chapter. Rose Bowers, our agency's principal, was the first president of the Central Ohio CAI Chapter, more than 20 years ago, and over the past 2 decades CAI has given us the opportunity to develop meaningful, long-standing relationships with people that have become a part of our family. CAI has provided us with an invaluable platform to both learn, educate, and meet other like-minded people who care about the well-being of community associations. I value and respect CAI's mission and look forward to fostering and furthering that mission to the best of my ability.
